

HOW YOU BECOME A DESIGNER

In Indian Engineering Colleges

Born in India

18
Years
12 Bags

And

a few
Dreams

Later

You arrive in your natural habitat

The Engineering College

You
discover
there exist
3 lifeforms

The Nerds

The Miserables

and you need to choose an identity

The Cools

And you choose to be

The repressed right brain, on finding an outlet, makes you
download 2
softwares from piratebay.

both Cool and Nerd

Then you enter the most important cycle of your journey

- You learn new stuff like a nerd.
- You make some cool looking things for different clubs.
- People appreciate. It's socially validated that you are cool.
- Dopamine kicks in, motivates you to do more

Looking back, you see a huge pile of work, which doesn't look as cool as it used to be...

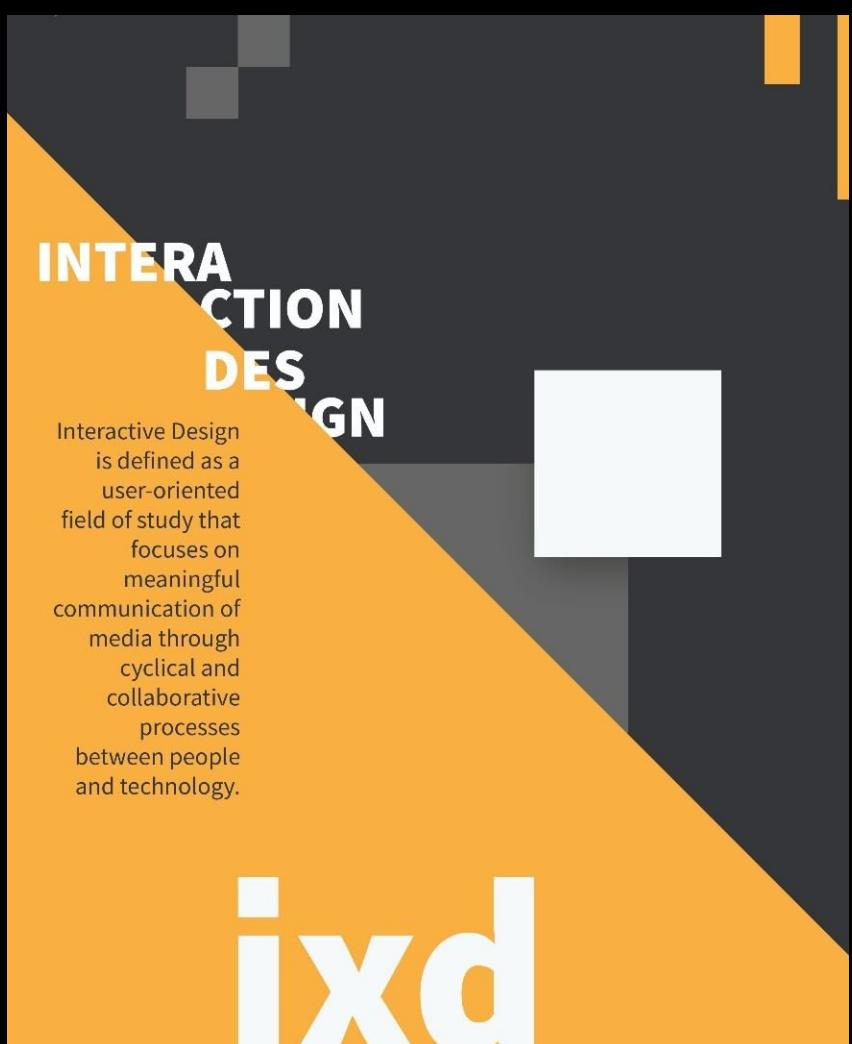

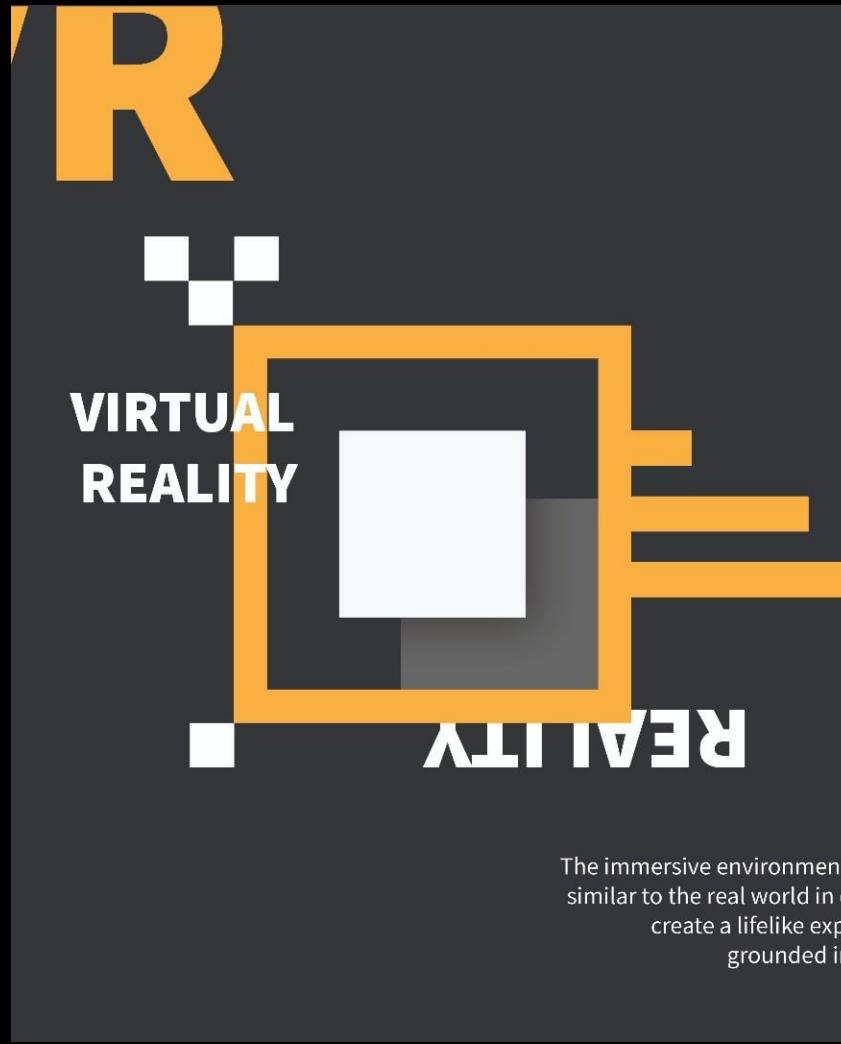

Come by after the saxophone ensemble concert for a south beach style saxophone after party!

Saxophone After Dark

mini recital & soirée

With DJ Candella Spinning for the Night

On 25th April (Friday)
At Newman Alumni Center

Because now you have come a long way from where you had started, your taste has changed. Now you are internally motivated to learn, experiment and improve.

On the final day,
everybody receives a
degree, but, you walk
out with an identity.

Hello Designer,
if that brought you a smile, spread.
